Easter 2020

"I am risen, and I am with you still, alleluia."

Psalm 34: In Praise of God's Goodness

I will always thank the LORD;
I will never stop praising him.
I will praise him for what he has done;
may all who are oppressed listen and be glad!
Proclaim with me the LORD's greatness;
let us praise his name together!

I prayed to the LORD, and he answered me;
he freed me from all my fears.
The oppressed look to him and are glad;
they will never be disappointed.
The helpless call to him, and he answers;
he saves them from all their troubles.
His angel guards those who honor the LORD and rescues them from danger.

Find out for yourself how good the LORD is.
Happy are those who find safety with him.
Honor the LORD, all his people;
those who obey him have all they need.
Even lions go hungry for lack of food,
but those who obey the LORD lack nothing good.

Come, my young friends, and listen to me,
and I will teach you to honor the LORD.
Would you like to enjoy life?
Do you want long life and happiness?

Then keep from speaking evil
and from telling lies.
Turn away from evil and do good;
strive for peace with all your heart.

The LORD watches over the righteous and listens to their cries;
but he opposes those who do evil,
so that when they die, they are soon forgotten.
The righteous call to the LORD, and he listens;
he rescues them from all their troubles.
The LORD is near to those who are discouraged;
he saves those who have lost all hope.

Good people suffer many troubles,
but the LORD saves them from them all;
the LORD preserves them completely;
not one of their bones is broken.
Evil will kill the wicked;
those who hate the righteous will be punished.

The LORD will save his people;
those who go to him for protection will be spared.

John 20:1-9

Early on Sunday morning, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been taken away from the entrance. She went running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"

Then Peter and the other disciple went to the tomb. The two of them were running, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent over and saw the linen cloths, but he did not go in. Behind him came Simon Peter, and he went straight into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there and the cloth which had been around Jesus' head. It was not lying with the linen cloths but was rolled up by itself. Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in; he saw and believed.

How wonderful, Lord Jesus, you came back
You suffered death but conquered it
You laid in the tomb but on the third day
You rose again

O joyful day, Lord Jesus, when you returned
You are the resurrection, our hope and our life
O glorious and victorious Redeemer
Help us not to be afraid of death
For we must pass through it to see you face to face
And on the last day we will rise again
For you said so
Let us rejoice and praise you
Our Blessed and triumphant Lord
On this happy, joyful feast.

Amen.

The background features a soft, light green bokeh effect with several white, semi-transparent crosses of varying sizes scattered across the frame. The text is centered and rendered in a clean, black, sans-serif font.
